

Rules & Responsibilities

Responsibilities

- From time to time you may be asked about the advertisement on your vehicle. Please respond in a courteous and respectful manner. If you have been provided with promotional material. Please hand it out when appropriate
- You may be asked to drive a specific route to and from work on a daily basis
- You are required to submit your mileage on the last day of every month
- You will be required to allow a Market Your Car Inc representative to inspect your vehicle for damage and verify mileage on a periodic basis
- You may be asked to provide photos of public functions that you have attended with your wrapped vehicle
- Do not engage in illegal acts while representing the advertiser by driving, being in the vicinity, or representing the vehicle as its owner so not to tarnish the Advertisers' reputation

General Courtesies

- We ask you to drive your vehicle in a courteous manner without aggressive driving so not to give the advertising company a bad public image
- When speaking about the advertiser, please do so with utmost respect in regards to their public image. Should some speak to you negatively about the advertiser kindly say that you are not an employee of the company and walk away from the situation.

I hereby certify that I have read the Rules & Responsibilities and understand my duties and will follow them to the best of my ability.

Signature

Date